COVER STORY

DE-EXTINCTION: RESURRECTING LOST SPECIES
SHAKUNT PANDEY
Scientists in several parts of the world are working hard to revive extinct organisms

ARTICLES

MINAMATA CONVENTION: A SILVER LINING ON MERCURY
ASHWANI SHARMA
Recent findings indicate that exposure to mercury, even with miniscule amounts, could cause dangerous health impacts

FREDERICK SANGER – FATHER OF BIOPOLYMER SEQUENCING – IS NO MORE
Biju Dharmapalan
A tribute to Fred Sanger, an outstanding scientist whose contributions will be indelibly written in the annals of science

PRESERVING BIODIVERSITY – PRACTICAL APPROACH REQUIRED
Biba Jasmine Kaur
Preserving the biodiversity in a biodiversity-rich country like India requires a practical approach

INDIA’S FIRM STRIDES IN SPACE
Piyush Pandey
The launch of GSLV-D5, riding on an indigenous cryogenic engine, is a major milestone in India’s spectacular space programme

INTERVIEW

PROF. PARTHAPRAKASH MAJUMDAR, THE FOUNDER OF NIBMG
talks about his scientific journey, in an interview given to Saumyadip Sarkar

FICTION

ENGINEERED INTELLIGENCE
Aabeer Kumar Basu

DEPARTMENTS

REATIONS
EDITORIAL
SPECTRUM
TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE
PUZZLE CORNER
ANIMAL BYTES
INDIAN SCIENTISTS
WHAT’S NEW
CROSSWORD