Guidelines

(only selected papers would be invited for presentation)

Manuscripts should be in double-space (11 pt, Times New Roman font).

Title

- ▶ Informative and focused

Abstract

- ▶ Brief, not exceeding 200 words, 9 pt, with a concise, clear and focused summary of the work to be discussed in the paper.

Keywords

- ▶ Five or six keywords (9 pt).

Authors

- ▶ Names of authors with affiliation and addresses of the institution(s) with e-mail address (9 pt). Corresponding author should be indicated with an asterisk (*).

Main Headings

- ▶ Each manuscript may be divided into the following main headings (typed in bold, first letters capital, on the left-hand side of the page; 11 pt): Abstract, Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusion, Acknowledgement, References.

Sub-Headings

- ▶ Typed in flush left, bold, first letters capital (9 pt).

Sub-Sub Headings

- ▶ Bold-Italics, first letters capital (9 pt).

Introduction

- ▶ Brief and precise literature review with the objectives of the research undertaken and essential background.

Materials and Methods

- ▶ Source and nature of material, experimental design and the techniques employed.

Results

- ▶ Data essential for drawing main conclusion from the study. Wherever needed, the data should be statistically analyzed. Same data should not be presented in both table and figure form.

Discussion

- ▶ The discussion should deal with the interpretation of the results. Wherever possible, results and discussion can be combined.

References

- ▶ References should be cited in the text by consecutive numbers of their occurrence; the numbers are to be shown as superscript at the end of the statement related to that particular reference, e.g. Effective science communication plays an important role.....
- ▶ Following the same sequence of the text, the list of references should be given under the References heading.
- ▶ Each reference should provide names and initials of all the authors, with coma between the authors and 'and' before the last author. In case, the authors are more than five, then use et al. after the 5th author. It should be followed by title of the paper, abbreviated title of the journal (in italics), volume number, year of publication (within circular bracket), and the starting and closing page numbers.

Plagiarism is not acceptable. Even after acceptance if a paper is found to have been plagiarised, it will be rejected.
